

Meritorious Service Award Nomination Application

This award is presented to an SRO for a highly unique accomplishment, under adverse conditions, with some degree of hazard to life and/or limb, or where death or injury to a third party is prevented. Examples of this would include apprehending a person on campus who has committed a serious crime or any noteworthy act of selfless service.

Submission requirements:

1. The Meritorious Service Award nomination form must be completed in full and submitted prior to the April 1 deadline.
2. A written submission need not exceed 1500 words.
3. Meritorious Achievement - the performing of an act, or acts, under emergency conditions where bravery is involved, but which is not above and beyond the normal call of duty
OR
4. Superior Effort - the performing of an act under emergency conditions not involving bravery, where unusual effort is involved and where such act results directly in the saving of a human life or directly sustains life through the injury or condition proves to be fatal.
OR
5. Outstanding Performance – that attention to duty which consistently reflects exemplary job performance over and above the standard level expected for the position involved.

Selection Process:

The deadline to submit the nomination form is April 1. Any late or incomplete nomination forms will not be considered. Nomination forms must be submitted via email to the awards committee awards@fasro.org

All award submissions will be reviewed and voted upon by the members of the Awards Committee. The individual who completed the nomination form will be notified once a selection is made if their SRO was chosen for the Meritorious Service Award.

Awarding of Achievement:

The SRO chosen for the FASRO Meritorious Service award will be recognized during the opening ceremony at the annual FASRO conference.

If you would like to nominate a SRO for this award, please complete the following nomination form no later than April 1. Upon completion of the nomination form, please email it to the Awards Committee.
